

BOOK REPORT

I identify the problem in your book.

Is any character in the story someone you would choose a friend? Why or why not?

-------------------------------------	-------------------------------------

What was the resolution of the problem?

What are the characteristics of the least likable character? Why?

-------------------------------------	-------------------------------------

Is the location of this story the only place it could occur? Why or why not?

Choose your favorite scene in the story and explain what happened.

Is everything in the story believable?
Does it need to be?

If you could change the ending, what would you do?
